

Division of Plumbing

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Does my plumbing license from another state allow me to work in Kentucky as a licensed plumber?

A: No, although any person that holds a valid plumbing license from another state is eligible to take the test for a Kentucky plumbing license without meeting the requirement for years of experience. All other requirements must still be met.